♥ Lots of Book Love at CMS ♥

To celebrate Valentine's Day, students picked out 80 blind date books. They also sent each other just short of 150 Mystery Valentine Books. What a great way to share love and appreciation!

Spring Book Fun - Feb. 28 - May 27

We are kicking off our Spring Book Fun program to celebrate Nevada Reading Week. Students will receive a book fun bingo and reading challenge. There are lots of prizes to be won. The Encore class with the most points will earn an ice cream party at the end of the school year.

What Mrs. Caster is reading: Pax, Crenshaw & Wild Robot

These three books are all wonderful stories with animals as main characters. In addition to the lovely interactions, these books include serious topics such as war, homelessness and automation. They also make wonderful family read-alouds.
