Dynamic shelving

We are experimenting with the way we arrange the books on our fiction shelves. Our goal is to make it easier for students to find enticing titles. All of my wonderful student librarians have designed one shelf so far and students can vote for their favorite arrangement style.

What Ms. Caster is reading: The Cruel Prince

In this fantasy, Jude (a mere mortal) gets entangled in the Palace affairs at the High Court of Faerie where most everyone else is anything but mortal. This dark tale dives into action right from the start - Jude's parents are killed within the first few pages! - and the pace of Holly Black's storytelling does not slow. If you're looking for a dark, blood-drenched read to make you forget about the mortal world for a while, this may be the read for you!

Featured Library TA: Jeremiah Urbina

What do you like to do in your free time?
I love to read and I like learning new things like chess.

What's your favorite part of being a Library TA? I really like that you get to see what actually goes on in the library.

What kind of books do you like to read?
My favorites are Fantasy and Realistic Fiction.

What book would you recommend? I would recommend "Cuba In My Pocket" 'cause it's a really good short read.

What you need to know about Jeremiah : I am a really good baker.

Do you have a piece of advice for Solons?
Don't be afraid to try new books and learn what kind of books you like to read.
