April is National Poetry Month

A great way to celebrate poetry month is by reading a novel in verse. A novel in verse is a type of narrative poetry in which an entire novel is told through poetry. Even if you're not a die-hard poetry fan, these books are great! As a side bonus, they are quick reads since the poetry format makes for less words per page compared to a traditional novel.

Mark your Calendars for our Book Fair

May 16 -
May 20

CMS Library is hosting a book fair through a local bookseller. Are you familiar with Grassroots Books in Reno? They will provide us with a wide variety of exciting titles. So, mark your calendars and stop by to stock up on great reading for the summer! Families will be able to shop before and after school (7:15-7:45am and 2:25 - 3pm).

What Mrs. Caster is reading: Keeper of the Lost Cities

In this series, Sophie grows up among humans and learns at the age of twelve that she's actually an elf. She moves to the elvin world and has lots to learn and fight for. If you like a fantastical read that will keep you turning the pages, look no further! A great read-alike to Harry Potter and just as addictive!

Spring book fun: Have you earned lots of prizes? Is your Encore class in the race for the ice cream party? Keep up the reading!

Featured Library TA: Bridget Lewis

What do you like to do in your free time? Play games with my friends and attempt drawing.

What's your favorite part of being a Library TA? I like that I have control over my own area of the library.

What kind of books do you like to read? I like to read fictional horror and manga.

What books can you recommend? Wings of fire, definitely: it's very creative and offers many perspectives from different characters.

Do you have a piece of advice for Solons? Be patient in the hallways: Don't push to try to move faster.
