Scary Story Writing Contest

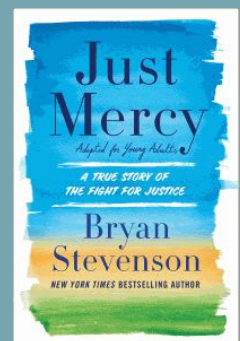

Do you like writing stories?
If so, don't miss your chance to participate in our Scary Story Writing Contest! All entries are due to Ms. Caster by October 21st. Click here for all the details!
One winner from each grade level will receive a certificate, prize and bragging rights!

What Ms. Caster is reading: Just Mercy

In his memoir, lawyer and social advocate Bryan Stevenson describes his many challenges and efforts to ensure justice for the most marginalized people. While this is certainly not a light read, it is deeply moving and a great way to learn much about the justice system, its workings as well as shortcomings. I'd recommend this adaptation for young adults to anyone interested in the judicial process.

Featured Library TA: Kyda Kreizenbeck

What do you like to do in your free time?
I like to play with my two golden retrievers: Max and Tris.

What's your favorite part of being a Library TA? I love being the first to see new books.

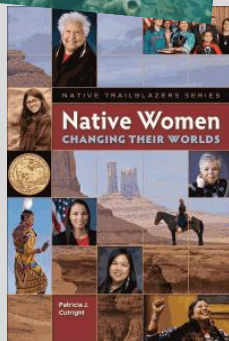

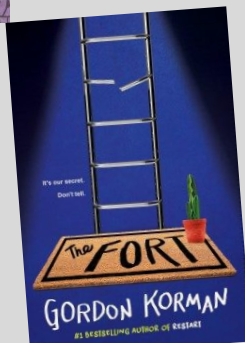

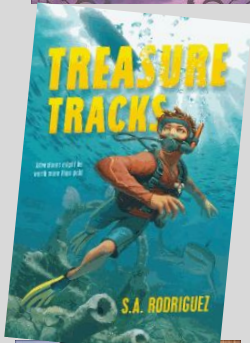

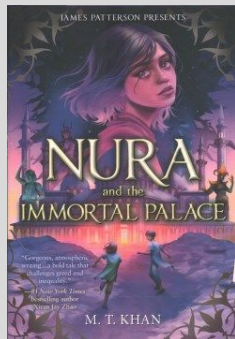

What kind of books do you like to read? My favorites are Fantasy and Science Fiction.

What book would you recommend? Cinder, the first book of the Lunar Chronicles, is an interesting read.

What you need to know about Kyda: She is one of the players of our undefeated 8th grade girls basketball team.

Do you have a piece of advice for Solons? Don't fear big books - my current book has 850 pages!
